

Debate Like a Naiyāika

A Seven-day State-Level Workshop on the Nyāya method of Debate

Organised by the

Department of Philosophy

Dukhulal Nibaran Chandra College Aurangabad, Murshidabad

West Bengal Affiliated to University of Kalyani

About Us

Dukhulal Nibaran Chandra College was established in 1967. It was in the Academic Session 2000- 2001 that DNC College was included under University of Kalyani like other colleges in Murshidabadd. The name 'Dukhulal Nibaran Chandra College' was unanimously chosen to honour the two brothers, namely, Dukhulal Das and Nibaran Chandra Das for their immense contribution. The Department of Philosophy has started its journey from the very beginning of the establishment of the College, i.e, since 1967. The Department began with General Courses and later, fully bloomed with its Honours Courses. Currently, we are running our department with 115 students.

About the Course

The workshop has been planned to highlight the exclusive logical pattern of argumentation following the Nyāya School of Philosophy. The intention is to teach the special technique of Arguments in Indian Philosophy to the participants at a basic level. Most of the āstikā schools of Indian Philosophy have honoured Nyāya School of thought for its firm systematic foundation. Our speakers will teach the same to edify the students for six days. On the seventh day, an examination will be taken online to certify the eligible participants. We hope this programme will end up being fruitful for many.
