

ABOUT THE WORKSHOP

Language shapes our understanding of the world and is a critical tool in professional environments. This workshop aims to explore the intersection of language theory and practical communication skills, equipping participants with a vigorous understanding of linguistic principles and their application in business contexts. The workshop will include a mix of lectures, interactive discussions, and hands-on-exercises. Participants will engage in group activities to apply theoretical concepts to real-world scenarios, particularly in business communication. This workshop is ideal for students, educators, and professionals in the fields of linguistics, language studies, communication, and business. By the end of the workshop, participants will have a deeper understanding of linguistic theory and its practical application in business communication scenarios in a professional setting.

This two-day workshop offers a comprehensive exploration of language and linguistics alongside essential business communication skills. It provides an invaluable opportunity for participants to enhance both their theoretical understanding and practical application

About the Department of English:

The Department of English was established in the year 1967. The college started with B.A. and B.com courses where language English was compulsory for both.
