

About the Seminar

The International Seminar on “Contemporary Issues in Accounting, Economics and Management” is jointly organized by Department of Commerce & Department of Economics, Dukhulal Nibaran Chandra College and Raja Birendra Chandra College. This two-day academic event aims to provide a dynamic and multidisciplinary platform for scholars, researchers, industry professionals, and students to engage in meaningful discussions on emerging issues and innovations in the domains of accounting, economics, and management. In the context of an ever evolving global economic landscape, this seminar seeks to delve into critical themes such as financial transparency, digital transformation, sustainable development, corporate governance, and inclusive economic policies. It emphasizes both theoretical advancement and practical relevance, encouraging cross-disciplinary dialogue and knowledge-sharing.

The features of this seminar are: Keynote addresses by renowned academicians and industry experts, Paper presentations by scholars and professionals, Panel discussions and interactive sessions on contemporary topics. Through this collaborative initiative, both colleges aim to foster academic excellence, promote innovative research, and build a network of professionals dedicated to addressing real-world challenges in the fields of commerce, economics, and management.

About Dukhulal Nibaran Chandra College

Dukhulal Nibaran Chandra College (DNC College), established in 1967, is a premier institution of higher education located in Aurangabad, in the Murshidabad district of West Bengal. Affiliated to the University of Kalyani, the college has earned a reputation for academic excellence, community engagement, and value-based education.

Named in honor of Dukhulal and Nibaran Chandra, the college has consistently aimed to uplift rural and semi-urban students by providing quality education across disciplines including Arts, Science, and Commerce. It offers both undergraduate programs and various career-oriented courses, catering to the diverse needs of the student community.

The college is committed to fostering a holistic learning environment that encourages critical thinking, ethical values, and social responsibility. It emphasizes inclusive growth and regularly organizes seminars, workshops, and community outreach programs.

With a dedicated faculty, modern infrastructure, and a student-centric approach, Dukhulal Nibaran Chandra College continues to be a center of academic and cultural enrichment in the region.

About Raja Birendra Chandra College

Raja Birendra Chandra College (RBC College), established in 1965, is a reputed institution of higher education situated in Kandi, Murshidabad, West Bengal. Affiliated to the University of Kalyani, the college was founded to fulfill the aspirations of the local population for access to quality education in a rural setting.

Named after Raja Birendra Chandra, a benevolent zamindar and patron of education, the college upholds his legacy by fostering academic excellence, moral values, and community service. Over the years, the institution has expanded its academic offerings in Arts and Commerce, catering to a diverse student body.

The college boasts a dedicated team of faculty, well-equipped classrooms, a rich library, and various co-curricular and extension activities that contribute to the overall development of students. It has consistently encouraged critical thinking, research orientation, and active participation in social and cultural initiatives.

Raja Birendra Chandra College is deeply committed to inclusive education, regional development, and preparing students to meet the challenges of a rapidly changing world through academic rigor and ethical grounding.
